

LATE SOUTHERN NEWS.

Continued from First Page.

Sergeant F. Ellison, badly cut, and life despaired of. Roundman George Crooks, dangerously stabbed in two places.

Patrolman John T. Van Buren, leg broke.

Charles R. Law, seizes.

Hicks, head cut.

John C. Atwood, dead.

John C. Andre, dead.

David Metal, foot.

Francis Palmer, struck with a stone.

Joseph Adams, slight.

George Brinkley, head.

Simon Bush, head.

MORE VICTIMS OF THE RIOT.

Congressor Willey held an inquest at Bellevue Hospital on the body of Pierce Cahill, 54 years of age, and a native of Ireland, who came to his death from the effects of a gun-shot wound received at the hands of the soldiers engaged in quelling a riot July 15, in Third Avenue, between Twenty-third and Twenty-first streets. Deceased was shot in the left side of the face while looking out of a door. He lived at No. 108 East Twenty-second street.

The same coroner held an inquest at Bellevue Hospital over the remains of an unknown man about 30 years of age, who died from the effects of a gun-shot wound at the hands of some persons unknown during a riot. Deceased was shot in the neighborhood of Twenty-second street and Second avenue on Thursday night. He was found dead by the superintendent of the gas-house who sent his body to the hospital.

AN ALLEGED RIOTER AND INCENDIARY IN CUSTODY.

Some of the Atlanta (Ga.) papers contain extracts of the people of that city to be prepared for an invasion of Rosecrans' Yankees, who are said to be preparing a raid upon North Alabama and Georgia, taking Atlanta in their route. The State Road will, it is said, be the principal object of attack. A signal has been agreed upon, and the "miles" of Atlanta and vicinity are called upon to meet on Marietta street, at the first sound of the canon.

Brig.-Gen. Paul J. Semmes of Georgia, wounded at Gettysburg, is dead.

Bug.-Gen. (Governor) Wm. Smith of Virginia has resigned his commission.

THE REBEL GOVERNMENT CONDEMNED FOR SQUEEZING BAD NEWS.

From the Atlantic Appeal.

THE FALL OF VICKSBURG.

The most disastrous intelligence of the week was the announcement that Vicksburg had fallen. To those who were posted as to the true situation of affairs in that vicinity this was not unexpected. We have reason to believe such a result was anticipated by the authorities at Richmond days before it was announced. The repeated calls of Gen. Johnston for help, in the way of men, munitions and supplies, were from some cause disregarded; and those who were acquainted with his true condition, as the authorities should have been, and others who enjoyed no official channels of obtaining information, could have anticipated no other conclusion. From prudential motives of doubtful propriety the daring facts were suppressed, while such as could be tortured into encouragement were magnified. The public disappointment, therefore, is greater than the true situation warrants. In the future, however, we shall deprecate and endeavor to dispel, as far as possible, all attempts to mislead our own people. We believe them equal to any emergency, and if their zeal cannot be relied upon, even under adversity, to save the cause, all is lost.

THE LATE RIOTS.

Condition of the City—Excitement Subsiding—Colored People Preparing for Defense—Rewards to be Offered for the Arrest and Conviction of the Rioters.

There was a sultry and rebellious spirit abroad on Monday night, but there were so many blue-flags and bayonets sprinkled over the city that the rioters were exceedingly careful as to what they said or did in their conclaves around street corners or in the low grogeries of the infected district. The state of feeling to which we refer was brought about by the restoration of stolen property—the arrest of rioters—the prompt action of the civil and military forces—and the determination of the authorities to sustain the laws and defend the citizen irrespective of color or creed.

Our policemen and our soldiers are a unit on the question of putting down the riot and punishing the rioters; and they are willing to work singly or together for the accomplishment of that end.

Order has been so far restored that many of the negro refugees have left Police Headquarters to look after employment. The dwellings of some have been burned and they have no home to which they can return. The dwellings of others have been sacked, and they will find nothing but vacant spartments—the rioters having appropriated their beds, chairs, tables, dishes and clothing. In some neighborhoods it is not safe for them to even now venture home.

Notwithstanding the fact that we have an immense army of men—aside from those who wear regiments—who were armed and equal to any emergency, no able-bodied man who is loyal to humanity should give slumber to his eyes until he has in some way enrolled himself as a guardian of the peace.

The mob has a felonious character, it can make die-hard noise at night, or steal silently along watching for a chance to spring upon the victim. It is not safe to trust the animal, even when it purrs and sheathes its claws, neither is it wise to conclude that it is dead because it has been put down, for like a cat, it has more lives than one.

Three prominent leaders have been arrested, the ringleaders are crowded with rioters, and the work goes bravely on; but every man must constitute himself a keeper of the peace, and with unslipping vigilance watch for the welfare of the city and country.

With the exception of an unimportant attack made upon some colored men employed by the Erie Railroad Company at their wharf, the city was quiet yesterday. The police patrols have again been resumed, and it is now deemed safe for the policemen to act singly during the day, except in the Eighteenth and Twenty-first Wards, where double, triple, and quadruple patrols are considered necessary. In both of those wards there are many idle and ugly men armed with slugs-shots, pistols, and clubs, whose fear of detection does not seem sufficient to deter them from still continuing their attacks upon policemen, soldiers, or citizens, even in broad day.

Mutterings and threats by the rioters are daily heard. Information was yesterday furnished by the police to Lieut. Baldwin, commanding Battery C, United States Artillery, stationed in the Park, that from various sources, it had been learned that certain men had plotted to surprise the guard at some favorable moment during the night, and spike the guns. As a precaution against such a surprise, a double guard was ordered.

The colored population of the Eighth Ward have, we understand, within the last few days, been exceedingly busy in forming military organizations and in fortifying and strengthening Sullivan and Thompson streets, between Broome and Grand streets, which section of the city is largely inhabited by them. They feel confident of their ability to resist any attack which may be made upon them by the rioters, and have, it is said, plenty of arms and ammunition.

REWARDS FOR THE RINGLEADERS.

We understand that it is the intention of the Mayor shortly to issue a proclamation offering rewards for the apprehension of the leaders of the colored men in this city last week, and of the participants in the other crimes perpetrated by the mob. This measure will doubtless have the effect of bringing the ringleaders to justice.

INJURED POLICEMEN.

The following is a list of the casualties among the police force from the Eighth Precinct which took part in the quelling of the mob last week:

Sergeant F. Ellison, badly cut, and life despaired of. Roundman George Crooks, dangerously stabbed in two places.

Patrolman John T. Van Buren, leg broke.

Charles R. Law, seizes.

Hicks, head cut.

John C. Atwood, dead.

David Metal, foot.

Francis Palmer, struck with a stone.

Joseph Adams, slight.

George Brinkley, head.

Simon Bush, head.

MORE VICTIMS OF THE RIOT.

Congressor Willey held an inquest at Bellevue Hospital on the body of Pierce Cahill, 54 years of age, and a native of Ireland, who came to his death from the effects of a gun-shot wound received at the hands of the soldiers engaged in quelling a riot July 15, in Third Avenue, between Twenty-third and Twenty-first streets. Deceased was shot in the left side of the face while looking out of a door. He lived at No. 108 East Twenty-second street.

The same coroner held an inquest at Bellevue Hospital over the remains of an unknown man about 30 years of age, who died from the effects of a gun-shot wound at the hands of some persons unknown during a riot. Deceased was shot in the neighborhood of Twenty-second street and Second avenue on Thursday night. He was found dead by the superintendent of the gas-house who sent his body to the hospital.

AN ALLEGED RIOTER AND INCENDIARY IN CUSTODY.

Some of the Atlanta (Ga.) papers contain extracts of the people of that city to be prepared for an invasion of Rosecrans' Yankees, who are said to be preparing a raid upon North Alabama and Georgia, taking Atlanta in their route. The State Road will, it is said, be the principal object of attack. A signal has been agreed upon, and the "miles" of Atlanta and vicinity are called upon to meet on Marietta street, at the first sound of the canon.

Brig.-Gen. Paul J. Semmes of Georgia, wounded at Gettysburg, is dead.

Bug.-Gen. (Governor) Wm. Smith of Virginia has resigned his commission.

THE REBEL GOVERNMENT CONDEMNED FOR SQUEEZING BAD NEWS.

From the Atlantic Appeal.

THE FALL OF VICKSBURG.

The most disastrous intelligence of the week was the announcement that Vicksburg had fallen. To those who were posted as to the true situation of affairs in that vicinity this was not unexpected. We have reason to believe such a result was anticipated by the authorities at Richmond days before it was announced. The repeated calls of Gen. Johnston for help, in the way of men, munitions and supplies, were from some cause disregarded; and those who were acquainted with his true condition, as the authorities should have been, and others who enjoyed no official channels of obtaining information, could have anticipated no other conclusion.

From the Atlanta (Ga.) papers contain extracts of the people of that city to be prepared for an invasion of Rosecrans' Yankees, who are said to be preparing a raid upon North Alabama and Georgia, taking Atlanta in their route. The State Road will, it is said, be the principal object of attack. A signal has been agreed upon, and the "miles" of Atlanta and vicinity are called upon to meet on Marietta street, at the first sound of the canon.

Brig.-Gen. Paul J. Semmes of Georgia, wounded at Gettysburg, is dead.

Bug.-Gen. (Governor) Wm. Smith of Virginia has resigned his commission.

THE REBEL GOVERNMENT CONDEMNED FOR SQUEEZING BAD NEWS.

From the Atlantic Appeal.

THE FALL OF VICKSBURG.

The most disastrous intelligence of the week was the announcement that Vicksburg had fallen. To those who were posted as to the true situation of affairs in that vicinity this was not unexpected. We have reason to believe such a result was anticipated by the authorities at Richmond days before it was announced. The repeated calls of Gen. Johnston for help, in the way of men, munitions and supplies, were from some cause disregarded; and those who were acquainted with his true condition, as the authorities should have been, and others who enjoyed no official channels of obtaining information, could have anticipated no other conclusion.

Two boys, 11 and 12 years of age, named Michael Evers and Thomas McKinay, alias Trainer, were yesterday arrested by Officer Lucas. It is alleged that the prisoners were among the rioters, and entered and robbed the store of Mr. Barney Murtha, No. 239 Tenth Avenue, after the premises had been forced in by the riotous mob. Abundant proof exists that these boys helped themselves plentifully from the store. They were taken before Justice Quackenbush, and locked up for trial.

WOUNDED RIOTERS.

In the riotous neighborhood in the Eighteenth Ward, there are a great many persons who were badly bruised and wounded while the riots were raging. In some blocks almost every house is a hospital and locked up for trial.

ROBBING A NEGRO.

A colored man who "put up" at Police Headquarters, yesterday, gives a graphic account of his run from this city to Yorkville and back. He was stopped three times by the rioters who took from him $125, all the money he had, and then allowed him to escape.

MORE ARRESTS.

A colored man who "put up" at Police Headquarters, yesterday, gives a graphic account of his run from this city to Yorkville and back. He was stopped three times by the rioters who took from him $125, all the money he had, and then allowed him to escape.

STOLEN PROPERTY RECOVERED.

The Governor's room in the City Hall has been surrendered to the military for the purpose of storing the fixed ammunition for the use of the soldiers now quartered in the Park. This description of military stores embraces all that is required for infantry and field pieces, or siege guns, and is plentifully supplied.

WOUNDED RIOTERS.

The Governor's room in the City Hall has been surrendered to the military for the purpose of storing the fixed ammunition for the use of the soldiers now quartered in the Park. This description of military stores embraces all that is required for infantry and field pieces, or siege guns, and is plentifully supplied.

WOUNDED RIOTERS.

The Governor's room in the City Hall has been surrendered to the military for the purpose of storing the fixed ammunition for the use of the soldiers now quartered in the Park. This description of military stores embraces all that is required for infantry and field pieces, or siege guns, and is plentifully supplied.

RELIEF FOR COLORED SUFFERERS.

The Committee of Merchants for the relief of the colored people, sufferers from the late riots, met yesterday, and resolved to open a central office, where applications for assistance can be made; a careful list of the sufferers and the amount of their losses ascertained and registered; physicians provided for the sick and wounded; a careful registration of those out of employment, and of citizens needing servants; a depot where contributions of clothing can be left by citizens, and obtained by the needy, as well as a desk and office room for such of the members of the bar as may have volunteered their important and much needed services.

THE 7TH REGIMENT WAS MUSTERED BOTH IN AND OUT OF THE UNITED STATES SERVICE AT THEIR ARMORY YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

The 7th Regiment was mustered both in and out of the United States service at their armory yesterday afternoon, and paid off. The command has received no notification of any disposition to be made of it by the State, and will be released from duty for the present, except a guard of one company at the armory. The different companies will maintain this guard in turn.

The members of the 7th Regiment are ordered to assemble at their armory, over Centre Market, at 10 o'clock this morning, to be mustered out of the U. S. service. At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Companies C, D, and E were ordered to the Arsenal in Thirty-fifth street, to strengthen the Eighth Regiment. Companies E and I, now at Harlem, are to be relieved by Companies H and G. Company A is still in the United States service, their rolls not yet having arrived from Harrisburg, where they were accidentally left. All the members are now on duty, and also some of the substitutes furnished by those members who were unable on account of business to leave with their comrades for the defense of Harrisburg. A sufficient guard is left at the armory to afford it ample protection.

The 7th Regiment was mustered both in and out of the United States service at their armory yesterday afternoon, and paid off. The command has received no notification of any disposition to be made of it by the State, and will be released from duty for the present, except a guard of one company at the armory. The different companies will maintain this guard in turn.

The members of the 7th Regiment are ordered to assemble at their armory, over Centre Market, at 10 o'clock this morning, to be mustered out of the U. S. service. At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Companies C, D, and E were ordered to the Arsenal in Thirty-fifth street, to strengthen the Eighth Regiment. Companies E and I, now at Harlem, are to be relieved by Companies H and G. Company A is still in the United States service, their rolls not yet having arrived from Harrisburg, where they were accidentally left. All the members are now on duty, and also some of the substitutes furnished by those members who were unable on account of business to leave with their comrades for the defense of Harrisburg. A sufficient guard is left at the armory to afford it ample protection.

The 7th Regiment was mustered both in and out of the United States service at their armory yesterday afternoon, and paid off. The command has received no notification of any disposition to be made of it by the State, and will be released from duty for the present, except a guard of one company at the armory. The different companies will maintain this guard in turn.

The members of the 7th Regiment are ordered to assemble at their armory, over Centre Market, at 10 o'clock this morning, to be mustered out of the U. S. service. At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Companies C, D, and E were ordered to the Arsenal in Thirty-fifth street, to strengthen the Eighth Regiment. Companies E and I, now at Harlem, are to be relieved by Companies H and G. Company A is still in the United States service, their rolls not yet having arrived from Harrisburg, where they were accidentally left. All the members are now on duty, and also some of the substitutes furnished by those members who were unable on account of business to leave with their comrades for the defense of Harrisburg. A sufficient guard is left at the armory to afford it ample protection.

The 7th Regiment was mustered both in and out of the United States service at their armory yesterday afternoon, and paid off. The command has received no notification of any disposition to be made of it by the State, and will be released from duty for the present, except a guard of one company at the armory. The different companies will maintain this guard in turn.

The members of the 7th Regiment are ordered to assemble at their armory, over Centre Market, at 10 o'clock this morning, to be mustered out of the U. S. service. At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Companies C, D, and E were ordered to the Arsenal in Thirty-fifth street, to strengthen the Eighth Regiment. Companies E and I, now at Harlem, are to be relieved by Companies H and G. Company A is still in the United States service, their rolls not yet having arrived from Harrisburg, where they were accidentally left. All the members are now on duty, and also some of the substitutes furnished by those members who were unable on account of business to leave with their comrades for the defense of Harrisburg. A sufficient guard is left at the armory to afford it ample protection.

The 7th Regiment was mustered both in and out of the United States service at their armory yesterday afternoon, and paid off. The command has received no notification of any disposition to be made of it by the State, and will be released from duty for the present, except a guard of one company at the armory. The different companies will maintain this guard in turn.

The members of the 7th Regiment are ordered to assemble at their armory, over Centre Market, at 10 o'clock this morning, to be mustered out of the U. S. service. At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Companies C, D, and E were ordered to the Arsenal in Thirty-fifth street, to strengthen the Eighth Regiment. Companies E and I, now at Harlem, are to be relieved by Companies H and G. Company A is still in the United States service, their rolls not yet having arrived from Harrisburg, where they were accidentally left. All the members are now on duty, and also some of the substitutes furnished by those members who were unable on account of business to leave with their comrades for the defense of Harrisburg. A sufficient guard is left at the armory to afford it ample protection.

The 7th Regiment was mustered both in and out of the United States service at their armory yesterday afternoon, and paid off. The command has received no notification of any disposition to be made of it by the State, and will be released from duty for the present, except a guard of one company at the armory. The different companies will maintain this guard in turn.

The members of the 7th Regiment are ordered to assemble at their armory, over Centre Market, at 10 o'clock this morning, to be mustered out of the U. S. service. At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Companies C, D, and E were ordered to the Arsenal in Thirty-fifth street, to strengthen the Eighth Regiment. Companies E and I, now at Harlem, are to be relieved by Companies H and G. Company A is still in the United States service, their rolls not yet having arrived from Harrisburg, where they were accidentally left. All the members are now on duty, and also some of the substitutes furnished by those members who were unable on account of business to leave with their comrades for the defense of Harrisburg. A sufficient guard is left at the armory to afford it ample protection.

The 7th Regiment was mustered both in and out of the United States service at their armory yesterday afternoon, and paid off. The command has received no notification of any disposition to be made of it by the State, and will be released from duty for the present, except a guard of one company at the armory. The different companies will maintain this guard in turn.